

Year 6

Construction

The class were shown a range of models – in particular the flying bat. They were put into groups of 3 or 4 and asked to choose a flying creature for their model. They worked together to make the models. Most groups finished independently although a few needed a bit of help tying the thread.

